SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The PRESENTMENTS

Of the grand jury for the body of this province, at a court of general sessions of the peace, over and terminer, assize and general goal delivery, begun and holden at Charles-Town the 20th day of March 1765, before the honourable Charles Skinner, Esq; chief justice, and Robert Pringle, Esq; assistant judge.

1. We present as a very enormous grievance, which calls loudly for redress, the want of a digest of the several acts of assembly of this province, and also of a printed edition of them, all in regular order, and under proper titles, with an accurate and copious index; for want of both which his Majesty's subjects live in an almost inconceivable ignorance of the local laws.

2. We present as a grievance, the present unfinished and uncomfortable condition of the court room, and the want of convenient rooms for jurors.

3. We present as a grievance, the want of a fixed public office for the clerk of his Majesty's court of common pleas, contiguous to the place where the courts of judicature are held, as the records belonging to the said office, now become very bulky (which are of great consequence to the inhabitants of this province) are in danger of being mislaid, defaced, or lost, by being frequently removed from one place to another, which, at present, the clerk is under the necessity of doing, as often as he changes his place of residence.

4. We present as a great grievance, the want of a law to regulate the rates of wharfrage in Charles-Town, as well as the scales and weights on the said wharves; for want of which many hardships are sustained by the trading and planting interests of this province, the charges on wharfrage of many articles on said wharves, being increased three or four hundred per cent. within these few years, and unless limited by the authority of a law, it is apprehended, will grow to an intolerable height of extravagance, and greatly oppressive to trade.

5. We represent as a grievance, the want of a general hospital, or poor house, for the reception of the number of poor objects who flock from all parts of the province to Charles-Town; the place at present assigned for their accommodation being found insufficient, and is, besides, thought a very improper receptacle for the poor, being crowded with criminals, vagrants, sailors, and negroes.

6. We present as a grievance, the want of public schools in the back parts of this province, for the education and instruction of the children of the poor people who are settled there. Such, established at proper places, under proper regulations, and the management of well disposed masters, if whose endeavours were, besides teaching to read and write, to inculcate early notions of piety and virtue in the tender minds of those committed to their care, then most susceptible of such impressions, would have a happy tendency to promote the good and welfare of those parts of the province, the community in general, and prevent many from falling victims to justice.

7. We present the magistrates and constables of Charles-Town, for not carrying into execution the laws for the due observation of the Lord's day, particularly those against the practice of barbers shaving and dressing of wigs and hair, negroes hawking and selling of fish; also the laws against persons keeping disorderly tippling and gaming houses.

8. We present as a grievance, the want of a law to oblige patrons and others, having the command of schooners or boats, to drop anchor before they come to the bridges, to prevent damages that bridges may sustain through the carelessness of patrons or others, having charge of them.

9. We present as a grievance, the bad custom of butchers shooting cattle in or near Charles-Town, whereby many, who are near their pens, are in danger of their lives; and also, their bringing meat to market in very filthy carts, either uncovered, or so exposed to the sun and dust, or covered with very dirty blankets or cloths, to the endangering the healths of the people of this town.

We recommend that the foregoing presentments be published in both Gazettes.

	GEORGE BEDON, (L. S.)

On the 13th of May 1765, being the last adjournment day of March sessions, the presentments of the grand jury were taken into consideration, and the following orders made thereon, viz.

1. The court hath long regarded, with very great concern, the grievance here presented, and doth most earnestly recommend it to the particular attention of his honour the Lieutenant-governor, and the other branches of the legislature.

2. The like order.
3. Ordered that this presentment be laid before the legislature.

the due observance of the Lord's day, and for suppressing gaming and otherwise disorderly houses, strictly carried into execution.

8. Ordered that this presentment be laid before the legislature.

TUESDAY last being the birth-day of our most gracious sovereign King George III. who then entered into the 28th year of his age, the same was celebrated with ringing of bells; the vessels in the harbour, and the forts displayed their colours; the Charles-Town regiment of militia, and the artillery company, were drawn up on the parade, and reviewed by his honour the lieutenant-governor, who gave a very elegant dinner upon the occasion, at Mr. Dulton's, where were present the members of his majesty's honourable council, and of the assembly, the public officers civil and military, the clergy, &c. At noon the cannon were discharged from the forts and vessels, as usual, answered by the militia and artillery company, with volleys of small arms, &c. And the evening concluded with illuminations and other demonstrations of joy. In short, the whole day was spent, and every thing conducted, in a manner becoming the loyal subjects of the best of kings.

We hear that, for the future, no unnecessary rigours will be exercised towards Spanish vessels that have occasion to put into the ports of his Majesty's southern provinces, for refreshment, &c.

We are informed by letters from Mobile, that a congress has been held there, by John Stuart, Esq; Superintendent, &c. with upwards of 2000 Indians, mostly Chactahs and Chickahis; but that the Creeks did not attend.

The Young Warrior of Eilatowih, has returned successful from his expedition against the Northward Indians, with scarce any loss.

Last Monday returned here, in the Beaufain, Capt. Curling, from London, the Hon. Egerton Leigh, Esq; (one of his Majesty's Council, and lately appointed Attorney-General of this province,) with his family; also Mr. Benjamin Huger, &c. David Gisme, Esq; late Attorney-General, has resigned, intending to reside in England.

Capt. McCoy, who arrived here last Wednesday in 14 days from Pensacola, informs us, that Admiral Sir William Burnaby was arrived there from Jamaica, having settled matters between the English logwood-cutters and Spaniards in the Bay of Honduras: That it was reported at Pensacola, a Spanish fleet was seen off one of the mouths of the Mississippi, with troops and settlers, to take possession of New-Orleans. And that he came thro' the gulph of Florida with the Galeons from La Vera Cruz and Havana.

Yesterday died in the 65th year of her age, Mrs. Anne Austin, the wife of George Austin, Esq; at present in England.

And last night also died, James Grindlay, Esq; attorney at law.

The Merchants of this town, we hear, have come to a resolution, to purchase no Indico in future 'till it shall be thoroughly dry, having suffered greatly last year by shipping some that was damp.—An eminent Merchant in London, writes on the subject in the following words, viz. "I am concerned to say, from the observations of others, as well as my own, that the INDICO lately imported is not so good as of former years; it has neither the shape nor the quality; but what is most detrimental to the sale of it, is its dampness. It is to be hoped, the Planters will be more attentive to this great point in future; INDICO is an object that requires and deserves all their care and skill, and as we begin to have a demand for the best for exportation, it will be of the utmost consequence to have it thoroughly cured; for when buyers suffer so much by the loss of weight, it makes them shy in future purchases; and if once the CAROLINA INDICO gets the character of being wet and bad, it will make such an impression as cannot be easily removed."

Saturday last arrived here from Mobile, the rev. Mr. Hart, lately elected assistant to the rev. Mr. Robert Cooper, rector of St. Michael's parish, in this town,—a place worth £. 200 sterling per annum.

We learn from the West-Indies, that the crops of sugar, throughout the British islands are likely to be very indifferent this year.

Extract of a Letter from a Magistrate at Ninety-Six, dated the 14th ult.

"—You have no doubt heard of the Mohawk Indian, the notorious Horse-Stealer, who defended himself against all authority by force of arms, but was at last killed, and for the killing of whom four men were lately committed and tried. There are still a great number of villains in these parts, who act boldly in the same open violation of the laws. This very day have I received information of a gang of these people (whom we call cutting men) on Tiger-River, that have above 100 horses in their possession, perhaps not one of them their property: Of these the deceased Indian David was one. Seven of them, on or about the 1st instant, came to the house of one Reed, who they understood had laid up some money to purchase a couple of negroes: Being seated, one of them asked Reed if he had any money? He answered, that he owed them none; they told him, it was money they came for, and money they would have; immediately after which they bound him and his family, broke open his trunk, and carried off his cash, leaving him and his family tied, in which condition they remained till some neighbours accidentally came to the house some hours after. A party went in pursuit of the villains the same day, but not meeting with them, as night came on, they separated, and each took the shortest way home. In a little while after they had so separated, one of them riding down a Branch, unexpectedly met with a man lying down, having a gun by him, who immediately jumped up and demanded his money; he saying he had none, the other knocked him off his horse with a club, but recovering the blow, he struggled with the villain, till a or 3 more rushed out of a thicket, which obliged him to fly.—A gentleman of Enoree, a man of veracity, and a magistrate, who is now at my house, likewise informs me, that about ten days ago, some waggons passing by one Gower's house, on Fishing-Creek, two or three men on horseback, pretending to belong to said waggons, came to said house, and forcibly took and carried off a trunk, containing all said Gower's papers, &c. amongst other things, the patent for the land whereon he resides, sixteen dollars, forty pounds proclamation money, and some south currency.—If some steps are not soon taken to repress and punish such outrageous and lawless proceedings, it will, in my opinion, be of much worse consequence than seems to be at present imagined, nay even worse than an Indian war."

PRICE of RICE 47 shillings and 6 pence per Hundred.
